

DIRECTIONS

Town Hall Theater is located in the heart of Middlebury, facing the town green. Look for a red brick building with an impressive bell tower.

From the North:

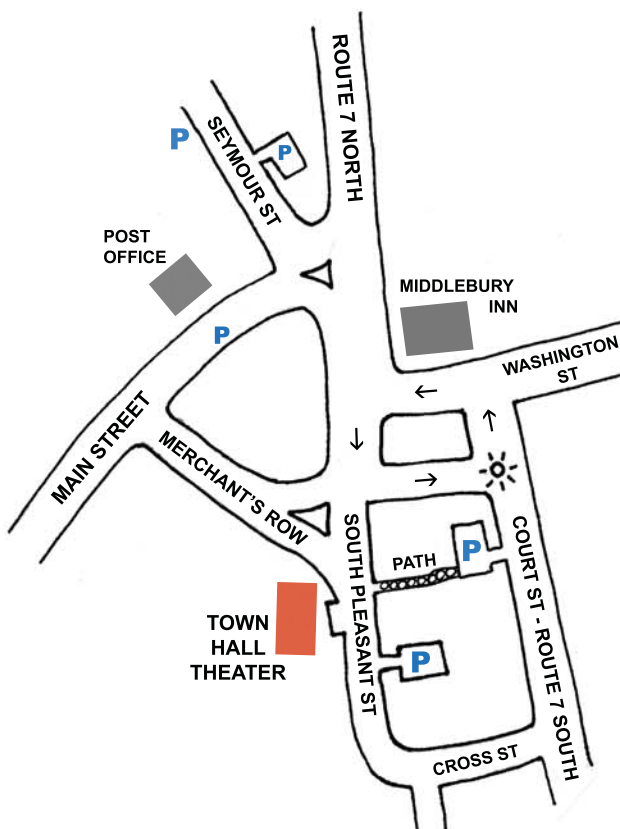

Route 7 south to Middlebury. As you arrive in the village, the Middlebury Inn will be on your left. Route 7 takes a hard left just after the Inn, but if you continue straight you will see Town Hall Theater ahead on the right.

From the South:

From the West:

Route 30 or Route 125 to Middlebury. Both head directly to the center of the village. At the main intersection, with the Alpine Shop on your right, turn right. Travel up Merchants Row. Town Hall theater is at the end of the block on your right.

PARKING

Parking is available on the street along South Pleasant Street at any time. Two lots are available on weekends and after 6 pm during the week. Look for the “Town Hall Theater Parking” signs. Parking in these lots is free.

Lot #1 is on South Pleasant Street, half a block from the theater. It is owned by the law firm of Langrock, Sperry and Wool.

Lot #2 is on Court Street (Route 7), one block east of the theater. The Painter House is the home of the Addison County Chamber of Commerce.
